SMITH AGAIN ASSAILS MILLER LABOR STAND

Declares at Oneonta, Rail Center, Governor Strangled Department.

HE SWINGS TO TARIFF

Dwells on Burden That Revenue Measure Places on People.

TAKES UP WATER POWER

Attacks Governor for Handing It Over to Private Interests for Profit.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ONEONTA, N. Y., Oct. 23.—In this railroad center, home of many labor men, Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for Governor, touched upon national issues for the second time in his campaign. He reiterated that Gov. Miller had destroyed the efficiency of the State Labor Department; had not "strengthened" but rather "strangled" it.

Mr. Smith asked his Republican opponent what he thought of a tariff that added taxation of more than $150 on every family in the nation. He challenged him to give his views on the Daugherty injunction against the railroad workers.

He came back sharply at Gov. Miller, who contends that the Democrats want a government for "special groups."

"The Governor is very much mistaken," he said, "when he says that I do not desire government to serve all the people. If there ever was in the State an administration that made a conspicuous record of service to the rank and file of the people it was my administration by contrast with his own, which has been devoted entirely to the service of selfish interests."

Guesses How People Think.

Opening his speech, the former Governor referred to Mr. Miller's declaration yesterday that "the people have put on their thinking caps." Mr. Smith agreed with the Governor, and he thought he knew how the people were thinking. It accounted for the Governor's "very conservative statements about the possibility of his reelection."

"The Governor further said," the candidate added, "that if the Republican ticket is elected, every branch of the State government will be administered solely to serve the public interest and not to grant favors to those who seek favors."

"This sounds very good and is undoubtedly a wise thing to say during campaign time, but let us see how the Governor and his party have lived up to that principle when entrusted by the people with great power. A few nights ago Gov. Miller broke his silence about his party record in Washington for just about a second, long enough to mention something about the budget."

"I reminded him at the time he did so that two years ago he insisted that ours was a Government by parties and that I should be defeated because of some of the policies of my party in national affairs. I asked him the other day if he still held to that logic and if he did, would he raise his voice in defense of the recent tariff act enacted by his party in Washington and repudiated by almost all the leading Republican newspapers of the United States as without justification."

In New York State, the speaker continued, the tariff had been assailed by Republican newspapers, "which in the past have been consistent advocates of the principle of protection and they have referred to the present tariff act as a perversion of the principle." Mr. Smith asked these questions:

"Was this tariff act enacted in the interest of all the people or was it not for the purpose of granting a favor to the few who were lucky enough to have a Senator at Washington to assist them in writing the schedules?"

Burden of Four Billions.

"When a man regards welfare legislation as paternalistic what can he possibly think of the favors handed to a few by a tariff act that places a burden of $1,000,000,000 a year upon the consuming public?"

A man who believed that the water power of the State should be handed over to private interests for private profit could hardly be expected to be concerned over the provisions of a tariff act that put up the price of living, the candidate asserted.

It was very easy for the Governor to indulge in a "long line of nice talk," Mr. Smith said, but it didn't carry any conviction with those who understood the record. He told what he had done for the Labor Department and went on:

"By sharp contrast with this record of achievement, let us see what the Governor did with this great department in pursuance of his avowed theory of government for all the people and not for a few."

"Could he have served all the people or did he even intend to serve them when he stripped the Labor Department of appropriations of money sufficient to permit it to function?"

"Did he have in his mind the welfare of the great mass of the workers of the State and of those in sympathy with them, when he placed the arm of the Government where it attempted to reach out for the protection of men, women and children?"

Mr. Smith speaks in Binghamton tomorrow night.

District Attorney Ruston of Kings Backed With $4,000.

Bets totaling more than $30,000 were placed yesterday through W. L. Darnell & Co. on the November elections. One of $5,000 even money was made that Smith will defeat Gov. Miller and one of $4,000 at even money that District Attorney Ruston of Kings would be re-elected.

Executive Attacks Opponent's Policy in Piling on New Taxation.

ESPECIALLY INCOME LEVY

He Denies Assertion That Loss of Excise Revenue Made It Necessary.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

CANANDAIGUA, Oct. 23.—Day by day as Nathan L. Miller patiently gives ear to the utterances of Alfred E. Smith, he shakes his head in a kind of puzzlement, saying "Now this is English. It is reasonably grammatical. It falls into the usual number of sentences and paragraphs. But somehow it doesn't make sense."

So always with patience and perfect good humor
